

AN IMPETUS TO CIVIC PRIDE

More than a million people have witnessed today the arrival of Admiral Evans' magnificent fleet and have cheered themselves hoarse in welcoming the officers and crews.

With Admiral Dayton's squadron and the other warships now in San Francisco bay there are some forty-six vessels assembled ready for a frolic or to fight.

These huge machines of war could not be duplicated for $160,000,000. There never before was such a powerful array of floating fortresses seen in American waters.

Never before has an American fleet been honored in home waters by the national salute of 21 guns from land batteries, but that is what was done today—and the tribute was well earned. Had all the vessels responded with their guns simultaneously there would not have been a whole pane of glass left in San Francisco and the waters of the bay would have been strewn with dead fish. Pride in American citizenship has been well justified and patriotism has been given fresh energy by Admiral Evans, his ships and his men.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—After a brilliantly successful cruise of 14,000 miles the Atlantic fleet, America's Armada, passed through the Golden Gate this afternoon amid the booming of cannon and the acclaim of thousands of enthusiastic sightseers who were afloat bright and early in their eagerness to give greeting to the war vessels from the Atlantic seaboard.

Right well did these noble fighting ships deserve the tributes of patriotic admiration showered on them by the noisy spectators in the vessels that awaited beyond the harbor for the approach of the fleet.

Hundreds of craft of different sizes and pattern were plying the waters off the shore, and thousands of people were aboard, ready to join in the chorus of thankfulness because of the safe arrival of the big fighting machines. Such a notable naval event was never before concluded in so majestic a manner. In perfect order the members of the fleet approached the point of rendezvous.

Magnificent Spectacle as Fleet Enters

SAN FRANCISCO May 6—The Atlantic fleet began passing into the harbor at 12:15 p.m. the "Connecticut" with Admiral Evans in the emergency cabin on the after bridge being the first to reach the head lands.

Into the world famed harbor of San Francisco the sixteen battleships of the new renowned Atlantic fleet accompanied by the six sturdy little black-hulled destroyers and a squadron of auxiliary and a spatch boats sailed today in the presence of a multitude unnumbered, that covered all the high hills coastal pretences, tall buildings, arms, reservations and wharves that surround the Golden Gate and the shores of the Pacific ocean. This is the fleet that is to be reviewed two days hence by the Secretary of the Navy on the completion of the great voyage of their tour around the world and to be entertained for ten days or more in the most elaborate and picturesque fashion on the residents of the city with an immense fund at their disposal has been able to devise.

Spectators Beyond Number.

No accurate estimate of the vast throng that gazed at the beautiful marine spectacle created by the long line of buff and white vessels passing within the gate and the many users of anchoring in the harbor roadstead can be given.

It was not alone an outpouring of nearly every resident of the city who was able to drop work or pastime long enough to catch a glimpse of the incoming ships but a representation of scores of cities in California and surrounding States, attracted by the fame of the fleet whose progress has been watched almost hour by hour ever since it set out upon its epochal journey to the Western seas.

Intense Excitement.

The excitement here has been intense ever since the ships first reached California, nearly a month ago.

Today the city gave itself up entirely to the welcome. The affairs of the outside world held no interest that could match the coming of the fleet.

Thirty vessels were in the imposing line stretching far out toward the dimly distant Faralones that swept within the gateway. To stem vessels of the Pacific fleet—eight of them heavily armored cruisers and rivaling the greatest of the visiting battleships in displacement and weight of gun fire—joined the line inside the entrance of Angel Island and then followed the greatest parade of ships of war that the navy has ever known.

Proceeding to Anchor

Through the crowded harbor the combined fleets, under command of Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, who yesterday flew his flag again to the breeze from the main truck of the Connecticut, threaded their way to the anchorage grounds their progress being heralded by the never ceasing blasts of steam whistles above and the ringing of bells ashore. Or the 'op' on Telegraph Hill a huge "Welcome" sign spelled in letters fifty feet high was visible from every incoming ship and constituted the first expression of the cordiality with which the fleet was to be received.

The lead of the four long lines of anchorage berths assigned to the forty-four ships in the combined fleets is just south of Folsom street, several hundred yards within the Ferry lines leading from the foot of Market street to Oakland and the other terminal points of the eastern shores of the bay.

Turn to the North

In order to bring the fleet in proper anchoring position however, it was necessary for the navigators to lay their course well down to the southward and then to execute a turn to the north of Hunter's point to face the incoming tide.

In turning for their anchorage positions the ships split into four lines of ten ships each the battleships and two of their auxiliaries taking the two inner lines, the Pacific fleet the line nearest the Oakland shore and the torpedo flotilla the line blanking the San Francisco water front.

Battleships Anchor First

Slowly picking up their assigned berths the ships came to anchor, column by column, a period of twenty minutes separating the spaces from the four lines. The battleships, having the right of line, were first to let go their great holding hooks then came the armored cruiser-like and last the torpedo-boat destroyers and auxiliaries. After all had been properly berthed a flash of signals from the Connecticut set the entire fleet in motion again.

Moat at Forty-five Fathoms.

It was an order to moor at forty-five fathoms. This involved the backing of each vessel in all ninety fathoms of chain had been paid out on the starboard or holding echo. Then, as the armored cruiser-like and last the torpedo-boat destroyers and auxiliaries. After all had been properly berthed a flash of signals from the Connecticut set the entire fleet in motion again.

ENTERS THE GATE

At 12:15 p.m. exactly the Connecticut, Admiral Evans' flagship, entered the Golden Gate, proudly leading the battleship fleet.

each ship then hauled in forty-five fathoms of the ninety originally paid out until last each vessel rested between two anchors with forty-five fathoms of chain attached to each. Turning ships were spliced into the anchor chains and the fleet then was snugly at rest ready for Friday's review and for its long stay in port.

Visited by Mayor.

No sooner had the ships reached their final anchorage four hours after the Connecticut had pointed her way in the headlands of the Golden Gate a little after noon than a committee boat carrying Mayor Taylor of San Francisco, including James D. Phelan, the chairman of the official reception committee, arrived to welcome Admiral Evans and the officers and men of the fleet to San Francisco. The ceremonies aboard the Connecticut were brief and informal.

Evans Will Be in Parade.

Admiral Evans has promised to ride a part of the distance in the naval and military parade through the streets of the city tomorrow when 3000 blue jackets and marines 3000 soldiers of the regular army and many civic and military bodies will be in line but further than this he will not go, according to the plan in the city's long program of entertainment.

Admiral Evans also will be on board the Connecticut Friday during the review at anchor by Secretary Metcalf. The latter on the gunboat Yorktown on which he has made his headquarters since coming to San Francisco harbor, witnessed the arrival of the fleet from the gate-way and afterward followed the long column to its anchorage.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6—Four months and twenty days out from Hampton Roads, the Atlantic fleet of battleships and the second Atlantic torpedo flotilla steamed today within the Golden Gate and cast anchor in the harbor of San Francisco, where a welcome chartered by tens of thousands especially awaited them.

All last night the sixteen battleships lay at anchor off the outer lightship tenth, rolling in the swell of the Pacific, with the six accompanying black-hulled destroyers bobbing about in their usual restless manner and making life uncomfortable for everybody aboard.

Glow of City's Lights.

The glow of the city's lights in the midnight sky could be plainly seen from the ships, and made officers and men alike impatient for the completion of the last leg of the long and arduous cruise of the heavy dreadnoughts.

The path to the Golden Gate lay to the eastward, while a few miles away in the wake of the long-dimmed sun the night lights of the tiny Farallon Islands twinkled their domestic vigils in entire ignorance of the immediate presence of the most distinguished naval visitors ever sent to the west coast of the United States.

Wireless Dispatches.

Wireless dispatches sent from the ship to the shore during most of the long night hours told of the joyousful journey from Santa Cruz, the last stopping place, and of the preparations for the impressive entry into San Francisco bay under the glare of the noonday sun.

Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, who left the fleet after the first ten days of practice at Magdalena Bay, came to Paso Robles Hot Springs for treatment and rejoined the fleet yesterday at Monterey took up his quarters in the emergency cabin of the Connecticut, where he spent most of his time during the long trip down the eastern coast of South America, through the Straits of Magellan and on up the western coast of the hemisphere, to be at the head of the line of sixteen ships on this day to their triumphant entry into the historic port of the Far Western metropolis.

Many Governors Present.

On the occasion of the fleet's coming to San Francisco has been made an occasion unique in the history of the Western country. The Governors of half a dozen prosperous Western States came here to voice the welcome of the entire West to the battleships of the navy, and the more humble citizens of the various common-

CLAIM FIVE DISTRICTS

Lincoln-Roosevelt League Faction Exultant Over Primary Election Results.

SAN FRANCISCO May 6—Returns from yesterday's primary election in this city give the Lincoln-Roosevelt League 53 out of the 87 delegates to the State convention. It is claimed that the League will go into the convention controlling the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh Congressional districts and with strong minorities in the first, second and eighth. The regular Democratic organization in this city elected 64 delegates and the opposition 19.

With the earliest stroke of the coming day the thousands who wished to view the historic spectacle of the fleet's entrance began this morning to make their way to points of vantage along the shores running both north and south of the Golden Gate.

The total vote of the Republican and Democratic parties in San Francisco was 2,900,000. Regular Republicans 922 Lincoln-Roosevelt League 7074 regular Democrats 3023 opposition Democrats 281.

NO CONTEST IN STOCKTON PRIMARY

STOCKTON, May 6.—The primaries yesterday passed off with no contests on either side a small vote being polled. By reason of a compromise effected at the ward meetings the Republican delegation is evenly divided between the Lincoln-Roosevelt League and the old party organization. They are tacitly pledged to support Roosevelt in the national delegation.

The total vote of the Republican and Democratic parties in San Francisco was 2,900,000. Regular Republicans 922 Lincoln-Roosevelt League 7074 regular Democrats 3023 opposition Democrats 281.

LOS ANGELES RESULT IS STILL IN DOUBT

LOS ANGELES May 6—Complete returns from yesterday's Republican primaries have not yet been received from the country portions of the Sixty-seventh and Sixtieth Assembly districts, and at noon today the claim to a majority of the 100 delegates from this county is in dispute. At that time the Lincoln-Roosevelt League had 42 the regular ticket claimed 48 and there were thirteen doubtful.

REGULARS WIN AT SAN DIEGO PRIMARY

SAN DIEGO May 6—The regular organizations of both political parties were successful at the primaries yesterday. The Lincoln-Roosevelt Republican Club made a hard fight for its ticket but met defeat by 4 to 150 majority. The regular organizations did not work as hard as the opposition. The Republican delegation will be headed by U. S. Grant Jr. and will be for Taft. The Democratic delegation will be headed by Colonel R. V. Dodge and will favor Johnson against Bryan.

CLAIMS OF FRAUD IN SISKIYOU COUNTY

REDDING, May 6—With only four precincts to bear the Siskiyou County Republican primaries are in doubt. The Lincoln-Roosevelt League ticket had 126 majority until the Weeds predict 128 regular Republican votes gave the regulars a majority of 41. Claims of fraud in this precinct have been made. The seven delegates elected in Shasta county are all regular Republicans, no attempt at organization having been made by the Lincoln-Roosevelt League.

SANTA CLARA COUNTY IS SOLID FOR TAFT

SAN JOSE May 6—Solid delegations for Taft and Bryan respectively were elected at the primaries in this county yesterday by the two parties.

NEW YORK May 6—George G. Deane, known twenty years ago as a theatrical manager in St. Louis and Chicago, is dead. He was the home of his son W. John Deane, in Port Washington, Long Island, of general breakdown incident to old age.

ASSISTANT PAYMASTER'S EXAMS ARE DEFERRED

WASHINGTON, May 6—It was announced at the Navy Department today that the examinations for assistant paymasters in the navy, originally set for June 6, had been postponed to June 29.

They will be held in Washington. There are several vacancies in the corps of assistant paymasters at this time.

make way for the Pacific cruisers and then again took position in the line, being followed by the Pacific torpedo craft.

Last of all came the auxiliaries of the Atlantic fleet—the supply boats and tenders that have had a homely but none the less important part in making the long voyage from Hampton Roads the success it is acclaimed.

GRADUATE OF WEST POINT HELD FOR MURDER

Drug Fiend, Formerly Army Officer, Accused of Murdering Pawnbroker.

PORLTAND, Oregon May 6—Edward Hugh Martin son of former Captain Hugh Martin of the New York City Police Department, graduate from the regular army armor plate expert at Sandy Hook and drug fiend. This is the man who was arrested yesterday by the port and police detectives as the culmination of an exceedingly clever piece of detective work on a charge of murdering Nathan Wolff pawn broker in this city Friday evening last. Martin denies any knowledge of the crime.

In Trouble in New York.

NEW YORK May 6—Edward H. Martin, who is accused of the murder of pawnbroker Wolff figured largely in the newspaper field in this city several years ago. While stationed here with the regiment to which he had been assigned Martin got into difficulties over his financial affairs and his connection with the army ceased soon thereafter. About the same time he announced that he had married Gussie McKee a young woman who conducted a race betting establishment for women. She died a year or two ago after her marriage to Martin. Following her death, Martin left the city for the West.

THINK LAND CLERK EMBEZZLED $14000

Federal Grand Jury Returns Indictments Against F. B. English.

Arrested yesterday on two charges of embezzlement Frederick B. English was released after $100 bonds on each charge. English was indicted by the Federal Grand Jury Friday.

English was a clerk in the United States Land Office of Oakland district. He was appointed by Sergeant S. Morton receiver of the land office, since succeeded by Stone.

One indictment charges English with embezzling $354.53 from the government which Robert E. Smith had paid for land.

The second count alleges that he took $44 from John Perry and the third count $4 for embezzeling $112 paid in by various persons on April 9, 1907.

There are also three counts in the second indictment. They charge him with stealing $400 paid by Emil Staude and $17.72 and $112 paid in by Josiah H. Whitehead.

Government officials state that the amount of shortage has reached about $1000.

SHOOTS FRIEND AND KILLS SELF AS RESULT OF JOSH

SAN FRANCISCO May 6—A quarrel that developed through joking ended in Gottfried Krast a shipping clerk with the Fredericksburg brewery, shooting Charles Seller a stableman in the employ of the same company, through the breast and probably fatally injuring him, and then turning the revolver on himself and firing a shot in his temple that caused his death soon after while he was in the ambulance on the way to St. Luke's Hospital. Enrich Volk, 45 years of age, a friend of Seller and also a stableman in the employ of the brewing company was hit in the leg by a stray bullet but not seriously wounded.

The shooting occurred because earlier in the evening Krast was bantered by his fellow employees because of his imperfect knowledge of English. After dinner Krast demanded that Seller retract a vile name and shot him when he refused.

and with precision took in line the position assigned to each.

Then came the grand parade for which these sea dogs have been preparing for five months since the fleet left Hampton Roads, and the intervening time has been filled with all the elements of life and romance. The history of that cruise is written in the memory and hearts of all lovers of our country, and the great sea-fighting ships reached the end of the journey in as good condition as they were in when they started.

With the Connecticut steaming ahead, proudly bearing the flag of Admiral Robley D. Evans, the battleships passed through the Golden Gate. It was an inspiring spectacle, well illustrating the might of the nation on the ocean, and showing the way in which American sailors accomplish whatever tasks they set for themselves.

On through the choppy waves of the narrow passage the Connecticut pointed out the course, and the other vessels following, made an imposing array.

With the dignity that belongs to vessels of heroic size the battleships plowed through the deep channel, the several numbers of the fleet falling into the position allotted for the occasion, and the most perfect discipline was observed in the movements.

As each came up to take its place it was given cheers, round after round, and though they live a hundred years those sailors will never hear more cordial or more hearty greetings of welcome.

STRONG PLEA MADE TO SECRETARY METCALF TO KEEP FLEET IN PACIFIC

BREAKFAST OPENS THE FLEET DAY

Secretary Metcalf and Distinguished Guests Honored by California Promotion Committee—Plea Made For Larger Navy in Pacific.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Hon. Victor H. Metcalf, Secretary of the Navy, was the guest of honor this morning at a breakfast given at the St. Francis hotel. A distinguished gathering was present to welcome the Secretary.

The breakfast was served in the red room of the hotel, and the scene was a brilliant one, the banquet being a veritable bower of California foliage. Myriads of lights, festooned amid the California foliage and flowers, added to the brilliancy of the scene.

Covers Laid for Thirty.

Covers were laid for thirty, and Rufus P. Jennings of the California Promotion Committee, under whose auspices the breakfast was given, was master of ceremonies. Secretary Metcalf was the recipient of many compliments from the various speakers who offered toasts.

The guests sat down to breakfast at 8:15 o'clock, and the breakfast was concluded at 10:30 o'clock. One of the distinguished guests present was Governor George L. Sheldon of Nebraska, who is here with a party of hundred. The Nebraskans came here for the express purpose of presenting a silver service to the Nebraska, one of the vessels of the big fleet. This service is the gift of the people of the State of Nebraska.

For a Larger Navy.

While the banquet was in progress the members of the California Promotion Committee presented a petition to Secretary Metcalf, asking and urging that an adequate navy be provided and maintained in the Pacific. This petition was signed by civic and commercial organizations all over the coast.

Want Bigger Fleet.

Toastmaster Jennings made the following opening remarks:

"We have gathered together this morning in your honor, Mr. Secretary, to have a heart-to-heart talk with you on a subject that is considered of vital importance to the nation and of pecuniary importance to the American people dwelling on the shores of the Pacific ocean."

(Signed) "J. R. KNOWLAND."

Want Fleet Here.

The following telegram was received from Hon. E. A. Hayes, of the Fifth California Congressional District:

"Washington, D. C., May 5, 1908.—Hon. Victor H. Metcalf, Secretary of the Navy, San Francisco.—As a member of the California Congressional delegation I most heartily favor the maintenance permanently of a fleet on the Pacific. Commensurate with the growing importance of these waters I feel it is hardly necessary to urge this matter, having full confidence, as have the people of the coast generally, that an adequate fleet will be assigned to the Pacific, as the present repair and docking facilities make possible."

(Signed) "E. A. HAYES."

Representative W. F. Englebright of the First Congressional District, of California, wired as follows:

"Washington, D. C., May 5, 1908.—Hon. Victor H. Metcalf, Secretary of the Navy, San Francisco.—I join in request that you provide adequate fleet for protection of Pacific waters."

(Signed) "W. F. ENGLEBRIGHT."

Idaho Favours West.

A telegram was received from Hon. L. French, Idaho's Congressional representative:

"Washington, D. C., May 5, 1908.—Hon. Victor H. Metcalf, Secretary of the Navy, San Francisco.—As one interested in the utmost measures for the preservation of the peace of our country I urge your favorable consideration of the requests of the commercial organizations that an adequate fleet be maintained on the Pacific."

(Signed) "BARTON L. FRENCH."

Until Canal Is Dug.

Julius Kahn of San Francisco, representative of the Fourth Congressional District, wired as follows:

"Hon. Victor H. Metcalf, Secretary of the Navy, San Francisco.—I join with Californians in urging you to retain at least half of the Atlantic fleet on the Pacific Coast. Think this ought to be done until the completion of the Panama canal by my country."

(Signed) "JULIUS KAHN."

Hawaii Interested in Movement.

That Hawaii is intensely interested in this movement is evidenced by a telegram received by a Hawaiian representative in congress, reading as follows:

"Washington, D. C., May 5, 1908.—Secretary Metcalf, San Francisco.—Hawaii urges retention of the fleet in the Pacific in the interest of international peace."

(Signed) "J. KALANIANAOLE, Delegate from Hawaii."

Those at the Banquet.

Those at the banquet were: Secretary of the Navy, Hon. Victor H. Metcalf; Alderman Cyrus R. Miller; Governor George L. Sheldon of Nebraska; member of Congress from Alabama, Hon. Richmond P. Hobson; Governor of California, Hon. James N. Gillett; Mayor of San Francisco, Hon. Edward Robeson Taylor; executive committee of the California Promotion Committee; Rufus P. Jennings, chairman; George L. Bachelder, Nathan L. Bell; Bruce Bonny, Frank L. Brown, A. B. C. Doermann, William L. Gerstle, R. B. Hale, J. O. Harron, R. M. Hottinger, W. H. Metson, W. Frank Pierce, James Ralph Jr., Fred Tillmann; reception committee of the California Promotion Committee; W. J. Dutton, chairman; Henry W. Abrams, J. Parker Currier, Bert L. Davis, Rudolph Harold Jr., Louis A. Hicks, Willis Folk, Robert A. Ross and E. Edwards.

Metcalf Accepts Petition.

Secretary Metcalf then addressed the assembly, saying that he accepted the petition and would take up the subject with the President. He assured the meeting that the outlining of what is being done in naval matters on the Pacific at the present time, and what is to be done in the future, are matters of policy, and would be made public at this time. Secretary Metcalf, however, assured the members of the California Promotion Committee that he would take up the petition with the President and that it would be given earnest consideration.

THOUSANDS WENT OVER TO GOAT ISLAND

Key Route Railroad Is Taxed Greatly Beyond Carrying Capacity of Its System.

Oakland never before witnessed so enthusiastic an outpouring of people as that which occurred today. From daylight until noon all the trains going towards the water front were crowded to their utmost capacity.

It was the same in Berkeley and Alameda, and the suburban lines from Hayward, Richmond, and other outside points were taxed to the limit in carrying the visitors who desired to take part in the ceremonies of welcoming the fleet.

Key Route Scenes.

As the Key Route trains were the only ones carrying the general public, they were overwhelmed with crowds, and those who desired to make the trip were disappointed because it was a physical impossibility for them to get on the crowded cars.

Such a concourse gathered at the Key Route station at Broadway and Twenty-second that the trains arriving from the pier were unable to pull up to the usual stopping place, but were halted two blocks away by people who pushed into the cars and took possession of the seats, the aisles being packed so that the conductors could scarcely get through to collect fares.

The trainmen were incapable of coping with the mob, and young men clambered over the front and rear platforms to the roofs of the cars, maintaining their positions despite the warnings of danger. Policemen hauled some of these from the perches, but there was not time enough to capture all of them, and they made their perilous journey to the pier in that way.

Thronged for Blocks.

For several blocks the street from Broadway and Twenty-second, up towards Telegraph avenue and beyond, was so thronged with people that they could scarcely move, and the most conservative estimate at 10 o'clock was that 10,000 people were waiting for a chance to get aboard, although more than 10,000 had already taken to the pier.

In despair of getting away, thousands of people went home, while all who could find room on street cars, took passage for Idora Park, Piedmont and other popular resorts on this side of the bay.

The scenes about the Key Route station at Broadway and Twenty-second were diverting to onlookers, though the participants doubtless regarded them as most serious. Some instances family parties became separated and wandered frantically about, seeking for their friends with whom they had planned to make the day's excursion. Some of these went about on the presumption that their friends had preceded them, while others gave up and returned home.

Commissary Stores.

As it was announced that no luncheon or drinking water could be obtained on Goat Island everybody went loaded with edibles and potables of some kind. Such a miscellaneous collection was never before seen in Oakland. One man carried a huge telescope basket, and another had a small trunk under his arm. Suit cases, so compact and convenient, seemed a favorite method of conveying food, while paper boxes and paper bags were utilized by a great many. In the jam and crush not a few threw away their impediments, hoping in this way to get aboard the train.

Man and Demijohn.

A stout man, middle-aged and broad-shouldered, brought suspicion on himself by slinging a portly demijohn over his shoulder, and when he was notified by a policeman that no liquor would be allowed ashore at Goat Island, he gave answer that he carried nothing more potent than cold coffee. Nevertheless he refused to give a sample of the contents of the demijohn, and looked doubtful about his intended trip, while the crowd jeered him and his unlifelike load aside. He saw three trains come and go without being able to get within a hundred feet of a car, and when last seen he had moved a block down the track, was using his demijohn as a pedestal in an effort to flag an incoming train. He probably was compelled to drink his cold coffee on the curbstone, as his effort to reach Goat Island seemed hopeless.

S. P. Trains Crowded.

At Seventh and Broadway the crowd was so great from daylight to noon that the frequent Southern Pacific trains were scarcely able to depict the crush. It was almost entirely as many wished to go to San Francisco as we were desirous of visiting Goat Island.

The Narrow Gauge trains from Fourteenth and Webster were also crowded during the early part of the day.

Quartet of Veterans.

There was a quartet at the Key Route depot, eight having been utilized by an artist as a sculptor for a historical group. Two grizzled men stood side by side, one wearing a faded suit of blue, while the other was garbed in gray, with an old fatigue cap shading his eyes that still gleamed with the fire of enthusiasm. In the rear of these were two young men both in the kaki uniform that characterizes those who saw service in the Spanish-American war.

Patriotic Significance.

It was clear that these venerable veterans, one from the South and the other from the North, each accompanied by his son, had planned the day's outing with a view to supplying a tableau of patriotic significance. They had fought on opposite sides, but their sons had battled shoulder to shoulder for the honor of the Old Flag.

KILLS SELF; MAYOR MOTT MUST MARRY

SHOHOMISH, Wash., May 6.—W. T. Ford, a bridge worker employed in the city, shot and dangerously wounded his friend, George McAuley, another bridge worker, and then committed suicide by turning the gun to his own head.

Aside from a dispute which arose during a row in which both men had been drinking, no cause was assigned for the shooting.

Both men were in Ford's house when the row began. Suddenly McAuley ran out with Ford following and firing at him. Ford shot six times without effect. McAuley ran into Dewey's store below.

Ford went back and reloaded his revolver.

In spite of the storekeeper's protests, McAuley remained in the store. Ford came downstairs seeking McAuley and again opened fire upon him.

In his attempt to save McAuley, Dewey was struck by one bullet in the finger.

Another bullet entered McAuley's body near the heart. As he fell, Ford rushed upstairs and sent a bullet through his own brain. He died instantly.

When the photographs appear today of Mrs. Victor H. Metcalf, first lady in the navy, Mrs. James Gillett, first lady of the state, and Mrs. Edward Taylor, first lady of San Francisco, Oakland points to a pathetic vacancy, for there is no first lady of the fair city.

The bachelor Mayor Mott walks alone or at least without the grace of the One Familiar Presence. There are some who accuse the genial mayor of being a laggard in love, but others will contend that civic affairs have crowded sentimental fancy out of the staid official head.

Again, there is Mayor Taylor, who planned a matrimonial surprise while basking with civic worry. There is the excuse that he was a poet and fanciful even to playfulness, but our own Mayor Mott must not be dubbed prosaic even for the play of contrast. Well, in a sentence, there seems to be no reasonable way of escape—Mayor Mott must marry.

COMMITTEE DISCUSS OAKLAND DAY PLANS

National Guard to Quell Night Riders

COLUMBUS, May 6.—Troop B, the mounted troops here Columbus, of the Ohio National Guard, left today on a special train over the Norfolk and Western Railroad for Portsmouth, where they will be transferred to Ripley, and will go to the tobacco district in Brown county, to the tobacco farmers, and terrorized by the night riders from Kentucky. Troop B will patrol the river from Aberdeen to Higginsport.

GOULD LOSES CONTROL OF WESTERN MARYLAND

NEW YORK, May 6.—It was sold in financial circles here today that control of the Western Maryland Railroad has passed from the Goulds to other interests.

The identity of the reported purchasers has not been disclosed. Representatives of Mr. Gould decline to discuss the matter. The property is now in the hands of receivers.

As the party left the Hotel St. Francis a moving picture was taken of all who had participated in the protest.

Secretary Metcalf was reported from Oregon to the Hotel St. Francis, and after the breakfast he was escorted back to Oakland. Bert L. Davis and R. B. Hale were the escorts of Governor Sheldon from the Normandy Hotel to the St. Francis and return.

W. H. Munson and James Ralph Jr. were the escorts of Governor Gillett from the Palmetto to the St. Francis and return.

California's two senators ex-

In conclusion, Mr. English laid emphasis on the banquet at Idora Park, saying: "Let us make this banquet memorable to the citizens of Oakland."

Mr. Frank R. Mott presided, and in a few words urged upon the committee the necessity of making this day memorable in the history of Oakland. Concerning the strangers who are now within its gates, he especially urged that they be accorded a hearty welcome.

"The best welcome," he said in conclusion, "is the personal greeting."

Frank W. Bigler was next called upon, and he opened his remarks by stating that one of the teachers of the Lincoln School had come to him to find out where the children of that school could donate a sum to help entertain the Jackies. He said he brought them to the committee rooms and she was given a receipt for the money.

He believed that at 12 o'clock Saturday night there would be many dowers to decorate the tables at Adams Point, and requested that all who could bring them between 7 and 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Over $21,000 has now been subscribed for the fleet fund, but still more money is needed.

Captain W. R. Thomas last night strenuously opposed the marching of G. A. R. posts and requested that the old soldiers be placed near the school children to view the fleet. The request was granted, and each soldier is to have a flag.

Warren English stated that he would need a great many dowers to decorate the tables at Adams Point, and requested that all who could bring them between 7 and 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Upon suggestion of George W. Reed, the committee last night voted to take the second trip in their boat on May 8, the day of the review.

Particularly strong was the plea of Warren English for the entertainment of the enlisted men and for the hearty co-operation of the committee in the big barbecue at Adams Point.

W. A. Morley, representing the colored people of the city, stated last night that the colored citizens have secured the services of the Negroes of the Columbia Park Boys' Club—Major S. Pierrot.

In response to a request for tables to take charge of the decorations, Captain W. R. Thomas of Appomattox Post, W. N. Van de Mark of Lyons Post and S. M. Carr of Lookout Mountain Post tendered the services of the W. R. C. of these posts, with Blackmar Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R.

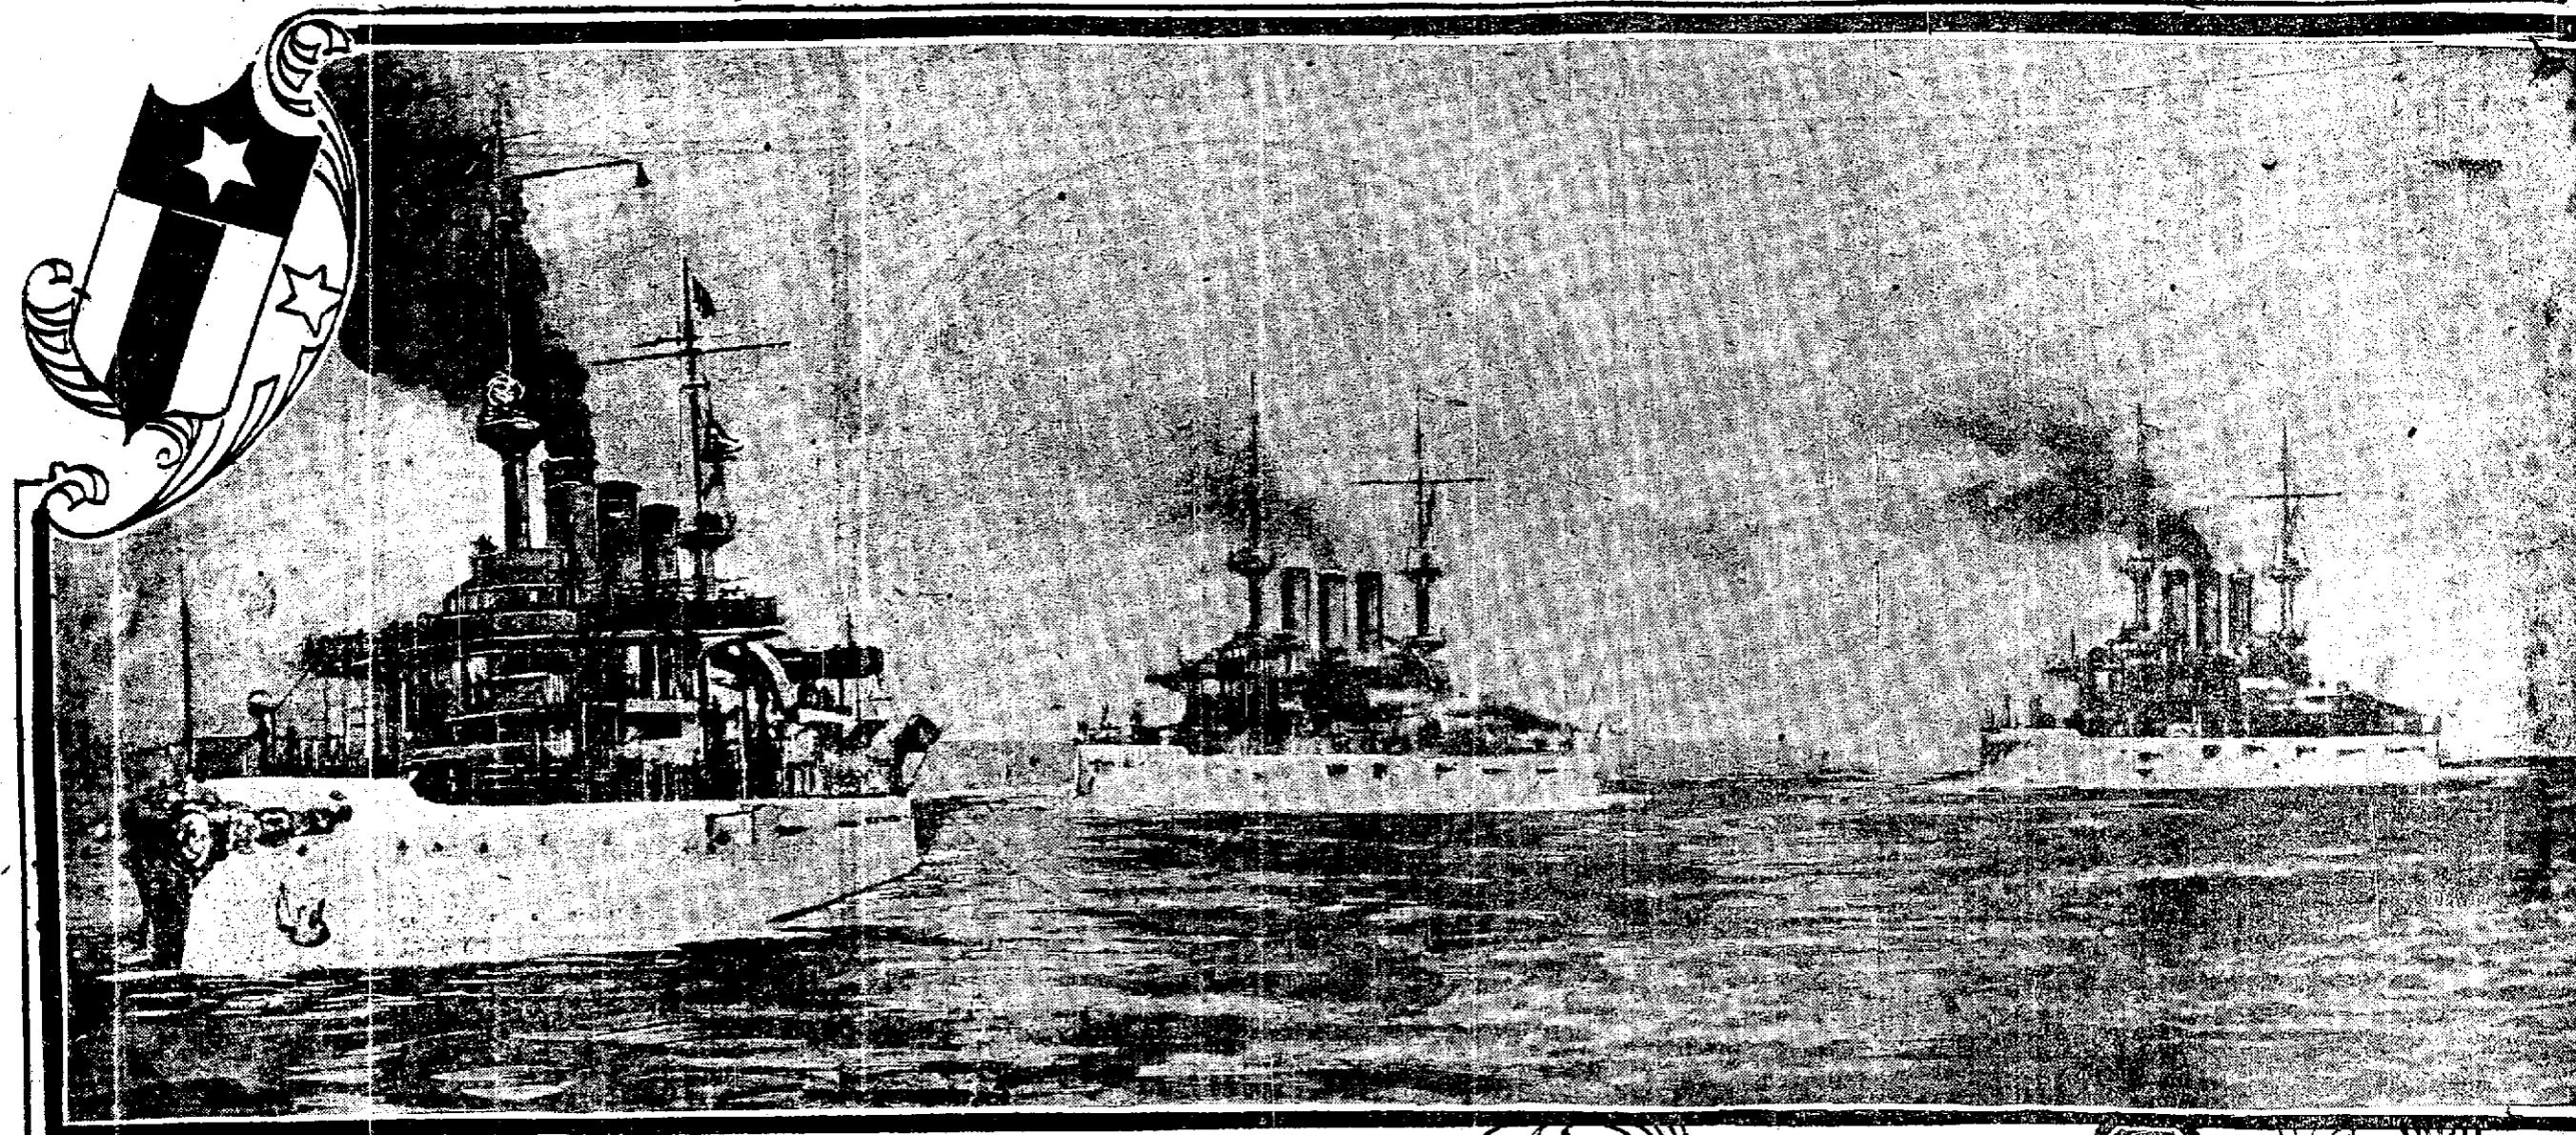

A vote of thanks was tendered the press for its efforts to increase interest.

W. A. Morley, representing the colored people of the city, stated last night that the colored citizens have secured the services of the Negroes of the Columbia Park Boys' Club—Major S. Pierrot.

He also urged that Oakland Day be made especially successful because of the fact that on that date "Fighting Bob" Evans retires from the American Navy.

The following telegram was received from the Palmetto to the St. Francis and return.

The Visiting Strangers.

Oakland is at present and will be for the next week or ten days full of visitors from the interior and from neighboring Pacific States and the territory of Arizona, who have been drawn hither by the assembling of the Atlantic and Pacific fleets of the American navy in the bay. It is the greatest opportunity this city ever had for exploiting its advantages for trade, commerce, manufacturing and residence, not excepting the period when about two hundred thousand of the afflicted residents of San Francisco were driven suddenly on this side of the bay to seek a refuge from the effect of the great calamity which overtook the metropolis and laid the more important part of it in ruins.

Those most interested in the future welfare and prosperity of Oakland should not overlook the opportunity which is presented in this extraordinary influx of visitors. They are here, it is true, to witness the most imposing naval pageant ever displayed in the waters of the Pacific; but a large number of them will avail themselves of the opportunity presented on this exceptional occasion to study Oakland from a strictly business standpoint. Our citizens should keep that fact steadily in mind and act toward these visitors in a spirit which will be conducive to the enlistment of their friendship and good will. It is scarcely necessary to impress upon the residents and business men of this city that a generous, fair and liberal treatment of these visitors will bear fruit hereafter a hundredfold. Oakland has just now one of the greatest opportunities it ever had to make a lasting favorable impression, and we have faith in the good common sense of its citizens that it will not be lost. While we are straining every nerve to honor and entertain the officers and men of the great naval fleet, don't let us forget to deal gently and kindly with the stranger within our gates.

The Stockton Mail says the Democrats have a fighting chance to carry California next fall. We doubt if the Mail thinks much of this alleged chance. To us it appears that the Democrats only have a chance to get a fighting chance. If Taft is nominated, as THE TRIBUNE is confident he will be, the Democrats will have no chance at all. They can hardly make the semblance of a fight in this State. With Knox or Fairbanks at the head of the Republican ticket, a good Democratic candidate would have a fighting chance. With Taft, Cannon or Hughes as the candidate the size of the majority would be the only question in doubt. The fighting chance our Stockton contemporary speaks about is only a chance of being able to make a respectable fight.

Friar Tuck in the Pulpit.

The license of speech assumed by a certain type of evangelist or revivalist was illustrated by Rev. John Bulgin, whose activities in Oakland are familiar to many readers of THE TRIBUNE, recently in Sacramento. He stated in the course of one of his addresses that "the wife of your Governor boasted that she had attended thirteen consecutive card games." When questioned by a Bee reporter, he said he had made the statement on the authority of some woman who came to him and said, "a Governor's wife said that." Mr. Bulgin does not know whether his informant alluded to the wife of Governor Pardee or the wife of Governor Gillett. Indeed, he knew nothing at all about the matter save the loose statement of an informant whom he did not name. The remark was ungentlemanly and wholly without justification. Mrs. Gillett and Mrs. Pardee are both exemplary ladies of the highest character and standing. They may play cards as a pastime with ladies of their own set in the privacy of their own homes, but that either of them gave excuse for the gratuitous slur hurled at a miscellaneous crowd by Rev. Bulgin is beyond belief. It is not supposable that either ever in language or deportment justified any reproach to character or conduct. They may perhaps play cards in their own homes for amusement, but that is no concern of Rev. Bulgin or anybody else. Mr. Bulgin made a blackguard's use of the license of speech accorded his cloth by his reference to a lady in the language he employed. A Christian should be a gentleman; he should respect the honor and privacy of womanhood and above all he should forbear to speak evil or impute wrong without being sure of his facts and justified by time, place and circumstance in making his accusation. When we find men ranting, blustering, lying and denouncing in the pulpit under pretense of preaching Christ's message of truth, charity and brotherly love, we are reminded of what Emilia said to her husband: "Some cogging, cozening knave hath done this, some base insinuating slave." Without knowing his identity, she had accurately summed up the character of Honest Iago. Yet the type of Othello's worthy ancient still survives and is forever doing the devil's work in the Lord's livery.

Industrial Safety Laws.

The Illinois Manufacturers' Association has made a new departure in its policy toward employees which must be hailed with the greatest satisfaction by the latter, because it recognizes an equity for which the latter has long contended and which will doubtless result in a better feeling between employer and employee. The Association has addressed a letter inviting all outside manufacturers to join in the movement afoot in the State to claim a voice in the agitation which is now afoot in favor of the enactment of legislation for factory inspection. From the tenor of the latter, it does not appear that the Association is opposed to such legislation, but merely desires to give the benefit of its experience in the framing of it.

It is only fair that the owners of factories should have something to say with reference to the details of the proposed measure. The manufacturers are evidently ready to meet their employees on a reasonable middle ground in the enactment of a law which will protect their employees from the effect of preventable accidents and from sickness traceable direct to unsanitary conditions. Employers and employees have a mutual interest in such legislation. The former have reached that point where they recognize that a reasonable form of factory inspection should be adopted. Opposition to such a measure has heretofore merely intensified the friction between the two classes, and impelled the operatives to demand the passage of laws ultrastrict and unreasonable and the enactment of which would unquestionably widen the breach between them and make it more difficult to establish harmony.

AWAIT GALA TIME
ON TRIBUNE DAY

30,000 Officers, Tars and Visitors Expected at Idora

That TRIBUNE Day in beautiful Idora Park will be an occasion long to be remembered is certain, for already an immense crowd is assured for Friday, May 16, when the park will entertain thousands of sailors and visiting civilians in Oakland's splendid amusement resort.

An effort will be made to distribute tickets, but it will be more appreciated, but for that matter anyone would appreciate a day and evening in Idora Park, enjoying the opera and the many interesting and amusing concessions, as well as the luxuriant gardens.

Among the gaieties on TRIBUNE Day will be all the officers and men of the fleet who will be as fortunate as to obtain shore leave on that day. It is expected that there will be from 4,000 to 5,000 of these sailors and tars, who have come to Oakland from all parts of the State. They have heard of the marvelous attractions of Idora Park and are going to fairly jump at the opportunity that has been extended them as the result of the arrangement made between THE TRIBUNE and the management of the park.

Hearty Welcome to All.

The sailors and visitors will be given a hearty welcome at Idora. The park has been richly decorated but is naturally so beautiful that artificial adornment is unnecessary. Those who have seen THE TRIBUNE theater will undoubtedly spend one of the many delightful days they have ever known. All others who desire—and there will be thousands of them—may go on that day, but only those who have purchased the tickets offered by THE TRIBUNE will be admitted.

The day will be spent as the crowd desires. Some will picnic on the lawns, others will take in the concessions. All afternoon and evening there will be an open-air band concert under the great willows.

After having passed through the park gate, where he used his first coupon, the visitor with a TRIBUNE ticket will

REGULAR REPUBLICANS WILL HAVE CONTROL OF STATE CONVENTION

LINCOLN-ROOSEVELT LEAGUE LEADS IN ALAMEDA COUNTY

Regular Republicans Carry Three of the Districts

The primary election yesterday was one of the quietest and most interesting it is known that was ever held in the county, the returns from which had not arrived up to noon to-day. The votes from these precincts, however, were not cast, because they were cast in districts in which there was no contest. The result by precincts and districts in Alameda county is as follows:

Tours World to Study Liquor Habit

CHICAGO May 6.—Mrs. Wilbur E. Crafts recently has returned from a tour with her husband of Japan, Korea, China, the Philippines, Australia, the Fiji Islands and Hawaii, with the purpose of investigating the conditions brought about by opium and intoxicants as an effort to promote an international treaty to prevent the sale of opium and intoxicants to uncivilized people. She says that Japan is entirely free from opium, and has a three years' imprisonment penalty for any person found using opium, and an eight years' imprisonment for any one selling it.

In the Philippines opium is permitted for medicinal purposes only. Dr. Crafts found that, instead of the opium trade tapering off during the last three years, as alleged, it had increased by $2,000,000 in the last year alone. The secretary of the interior of the Philippines declared that opium is the greatest peril of the land.

There now is fresh agitation to stop its use, and England, Holland, Japan and China have promised to cooperate with the United States in reducing the use of opium to medicinal purposes. In China Mrs. Crafts and her husband found that the smoking dens have been closed largely, and that no more licenses for opium smoking are issued by the Chinese government. The empress dowager and several of her viceroys appear to be doing all in their power to stop the use of opium in China.

"We May Die in Exile," She Says, "But Something Will Come Out of It at Last"

CHICAGO, May 6.—Catherine Breshkovskaya is the "well beloved grandmother" of the Russian woman revolutionists. For twenty-three years she was incarcerated in various prisons in Siberia, sometimes in solitary confinement, sometimes with a few companions in an arctic climate, surrounded by an eternity of snow, but undaunted in spite of all. She at that time declared that, "we may die at last."

Mme. Breshkovskaya is the daughter of a Russian nobleman. For years she worked among the peasants, teaching them to read, and often standing between them and their official persecutors. She at first desired to do no more than to instruct the peasants how to secure their legal rights, but the effects of her teaching were unacceptable to the authorities, finding that they had votes, and peasants used them to elect men of progressive tendencies, and Mme. Breshkovskaya was saluted with the peasants' choice and branded as a dangerous political agitator. She and her husband were warned and placed under police supervision, and the old order of things was promptly re-established. She was now 25 years old, and decided she must work in secret, and, because her husband declined to do exile and death for the cause she went out to face destiny alone.

She not only donned the garb of a peasant woman, but used acid purposely to spoil the skin of her face and hands, so as to make them look coarse and wrinkled. For three years she worked secretly, but finally was secured by the government and given awful punishment.

Some of her companions went mad, some committed suicide, one died as the result of prison flogging, but Mme. Breshkovskaya came through undaunted, after twenty-three years of hardships and horrors.

In a miserable village near the Chinese frontier she was seen by George Keanan, who avows that he cannot recall her last words to him without feeling conscious that all his standards of courage of fortitude, and of heroic self-sacrifice have been raised for all time. After a brief period of freedom Mme. Breshkovskaya again is in prison.

PARIS, May 6.—A dramatic love tragedy occurred in the Russian students' colony in Paris recently.

Alexander Gueska, aged 20, a Russian student at Odessa, was deeply in love with a fellow-student, Mlle. Gillinsky. She ignored his advances, however, and some months ago she came to Paris in order to study at the Sorbonne.

A few weeks ago she became engaged to be married. The news reached Gueska at Odessa, and he at once set off for Paris. About 8 o'clock last night he called at the rooms of Mlle. Gillinsky in the Rue Me-branche and violently protested against her forthcoming marriage.

The girl told him that his journey had been a needless expense, as he knew well that she did not love him and had no desire to see him.

At these words the young man suddenly drew a revolver from his pocket and fired at the girl, wounding her slightly. He then turned the weapon against himself and shot himself dead.

Mlle. Gillinsky, who is suffering from shock more than from her wounds, has undertaken to pay the funeral expenses, so that the remains of her unfortunate comrade will not be transferred to the morgue.

Mlle. Gillinsky, who is suffering from shock more than from her wounds, has undertaken to pay the funeral expenses, so that the remains of her unfortunate comrade will not be transferred to the morgue.

The girl told him that his journey had been a needless expense, as he knew well that she did not love him and had no desire to see him.

At these words the young man suddenly drew a revolver from his pocket and fired at the girl, wounding her slightly. He then turned the weapon against himself and shot himself dead.

HEAVY LOSS CAUSED BY FLAMES

Two Fires in San Francisco at Early Hour of Morning; Ten Horses Burned to Death.

(Special to the Tribune) SAN FRANCISCO May 6—Damage to the extent of $100,000 was caused by two fires which broke out in the Mission district just four blocks from each other between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning and ten horses were killed and many others injured before they were under control by the department.

Horses Burned to Death

The first fire broke out at 3 o'clock this morning in the restaurant of F. Christensen at 2481 Mission street and four buildings were completely destroyed. The exact cause of the fire is unknown but it is supposed to have started from a defective coil. The fire spread rapidly and the stable of Thomas O'Keefe, a hay and grain merchant, was soon in flames. Before the horses could be rescued they were burned to death and the jeweler's store of J. Johnson took fire. During the course of the excitement attendant upon the burning of Johnson's place a robber broke a glass window and started a fire in the place.

Shoots at Thief

He was seized by Policeman Ewing who fired him to halt. Instead of complying with the request he started to run and the officer fired three shots at him which only increased his speed. He subsequently dropped three silver spoons which had been stolen.

That four hats containing a number of women and children were not also destroyed was due to the heroism of Policeman Tom Naylor who lives at 2441 Mission street.

At the cry of fire the officer ran into the street in his underclothing and proceeded to drag a hose and play it upon an outhouse which if allowed to burn would have destroyed the hats. Later the uniform which Naylor put on hurriedly in the street was badly burned while he was endeavoring to save property and he was compelled to report for duty in his citizen's clothes.

The damage amounting to about $50,000 was fully covered by insurance.

The Second Fire

The second fire broke out at 3:30 in the restaurant of Mark Labovich, 511 Mission street and was also of unknown origin. Before this blaze could be checked the alarms had been turned in and three buildings were destroyed. Besides the loss suffered by Labovich the hardware firm of F. W. Engen and the saloon of C. Westerman were completely demolished. The loss is also estimated at $50,000 which is partially covered by insurance.

Half the fire department of the city was engaged in fighting the two fires.

5000 TO ATTEND FLEET RECEPTION AT FAIRMONT

Feared Admiral Evans Will Be Unable to Attend

SAN FRANCISCO May 6—The big reception to officers of the fleet at the Fairmont Hotel this evening will begin at 9 o'clock. Invitations have been issued to 5000 people from 10 p.m. to 1 a.m., after which the entertainment will continue.

Admiral Evans, it is feared, will be unable to attend. Secretary Metcalf, Admiral Loomis, Governor Sheldon of Nebraska, and Mayor Taylor will be among the prominent persons present.

Before the reception will occur two social functions at the Fairmont at one inington Square, Filmore street and Sixteenth and Mission streets, of which James D. Phelan will entertain.

TRAIN INJURES WOMAN ON HER WAY TO GREET FLEET

Dislocates Mother's Hip; Hurts Daughter

Mrs. Alice Allen living at 887 Thirty-fourth street was injured at the Fourteenth street depot of the Southern Pacific this morning about 10 o'clock by being dragged by an incoming train. Mrs. Allen and her daughter were standing in the crowd awaiting a train to take them to San Francisco and were standing too close to the tracks.

The locomotive struck Mrs. Allen and catching her clothing dragged her several feet. She was immediately taken by the police patrol to the Emergency Hospital, where Dr. Irwin found she had sustained a fractured hip. She was afterwards removed to the Providence Hospital. Her daughter escaped injury, although knocked to the pavement.

Crush at the Key Route Station

THE police were taxed to the utmost in handling the crowds at the Key Route station wishing to go to Goat Island and San Francisco. Up to 9:30 this morning Superintendent Potter stated that the Key Route lines had handled 40,000 people en route to the two points. Traffic was congested at Twenty-second and Fortieth streets but it was at the Twenty-second street and Broadway depot where the greatest trouble was experienced.

At 10 o'clock notwithstanding the frequent running of trains, there was at least 25,000 people standing alongside the tracks between Broadway and San Pablo avenue, waiting for transportation either to Goat Island or to San Francisco.

At 10 o'clock the police took control at the Key Route Inn, notifying the general public that no further trains would be run to the Key Route pier for their accommodation until 11 o'clock. The next train that would arrive there would be for the use of the fleet reception committee and only those holding tickets would be permitted to ride on the train. This cleared the atmosphere in and around the Key Route station the general public walking down the line for the purpose of catching trains on which they could ride as they came towards the terminus.

The reception committee congregated in the Key Route Inn station and experienced little difficulty boarding their train.

40,000 VIEW FLEET FROM GOAT ISLAND

Thousands of Others Fail to Reach Station

Brought in other thousands until it was impossible to get within one hundred yards of the pier shed because of the mobs. Flat cars with improvised seats were pressed into service and even then vast throngs were left at the various stations along the line.

It was not until 11 o'clock that an announcement of the disbursement of the boats was made and as each train returned from the Key Route pier men and women alike pleaded with the collectors to be taken aboard.

40,000 on Island After the service from the Oakland side had ceased boats still continued to leave from San Francisco and it was estimated that about 40,000 people were on the island.

The reason given for stopping the boats was that the low tide would not permit a landing.

Traffic all over Oakland has been in a congested condition because of the mad rush for Goat Island and this congestion was even more increased when those who had been left on the pier began to return home.

Dense Mass of Humanity The southeast side of Goat Island was a dense mass of humanity. A raw wind was blowing all morning but those who had made the journey were determined to stay it out. Two birds entwined the occasion with patriotic airs.

To the east lay the Pacific fleet under the shelter of Angel Island, their white hulls glistening in the sunshine which occasionally stole through the fog. To the west lay the Golden Gate and it was to this point that all eyes were turned as the time for the appearance of the famous fleet drew near.

Oakland's Hotels Full to Overflowing In the meantime Captain of Detectives Petersen, hearing the first shot, rushed from his office and through the rear entrance into the hall. Woods continued his race and just as he turned into Fifteenth street McSorley fired a shot into the air. It hit Woods and sent him to the ground. Woods increased his speed dashed along the path McSorley about fifty feet behind him.

McSorley again called to Woods to stop him but as he turned into Fifteenth street McSorley fired a shot at him. As he gained in the man and just as he was crossing Fifteenth street into Foster's saloon McSorley overtook him.

In the meantime Captain of Detectives Petersen, hearing the first shot, rushed from his office and through the rear entrance into the hall. Woods continued his race and just as he turned into Fifteenth street McSorley fired a shot at him.

On being searched several watches gold chains razors both safety and regular money, necklaces, rings, etc., were found to be of the Eastern crooks who have reached Oakland, expecting to do business during the time of the fleet.

Pacific Fleet Will Sail May Fifteenth

WASHINGTON May 6—A change in the order governing the movement of the Pacific fleet commanded by Rear Admiral Dayton was announced at the same time that the fleet would remain at San Francisco until May 15 when they will sail for a southern cruise. The original orders to Admiral Dayton contemplated the departure of his fleet on May 10, but the day following the naval review.

Belmont's Colt Wins British Race

LONDON May 6—The two thousand guineas stakes for colts and fillies foaled in 1905 were run at Newmarket today and won by August Belmont's Normand II, by Octagon of Nineveh.

ADMIRAL EVANS TO BE IN THE PARADE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6—Admiral Evans has promised to ride in a carriage for a brief distance in the great naval, military and civic parade tomorrow, when there will be 8000 bluejackets, 3000 soldiers of the regular army and civilian organizations in line. Further than that he will not participate in any of the many entertainments in honor of the arrival of the fleet.

KILLS GIRL, PURSUING MAN AND SELF

Commits Suicide After He Shoots Negress, Her Mother and Also Murders Pursuer.

WASHINGTON COURTHOUSE, Ohio May 6—Bert Devaney, aged 43, a horseman and a native of Johnstown last night shot and killed John Devaney, aged 22, a negro, and shot her mother in the abdomen, inflicting a fatal wound. He then ran to the barn of Silas Shuckford. Refusing to come out, Shuckford went in after him and was shot and killed by Devaney. Later Devaney committed suicide.

Following the shooting of the woman company M Fourth regiment Ohio National Guard was called out. The officers surrounded the barn and threatened to burn it. Later Shuckford's body and that of Devaney were found.

Devaney shot the girl and her mother when he called at their home and was refused admittance. The colored girl was a graduate of the High School seven years ago while marshal of Darbyville, Devaney shot and killed Washington Duncan. He was released last night and served a short term in the penitentiary for the act.

The merry widow hats fare badly in the crush.

The merry widow hats had a hard time of it in the mob at the Key Route depot. A plump young woman wearing a navy blue tailor made suit and a broad mamy widow hat with a wide band of frayed red ribbon, got caught in the maelstrom that was surging about an incoming train, and before she could be rescued by her escort a slim young man wearing a light suit a man's ale and toothpick shoes her hat was swished from her head and completely wrenched under the feet of the swirling mob.

The hat was finally recovered by a patrolman who came to her assistance, the slim young man being lost in the crowd. This was one instance and may teach a lesson to those who venture abroad in such hazardous headgear.

No Accident On Goat Island

Despite the enormous crowd which thronged Goat Island today to view the fleet not an accident has as yet been reported.

The first boatload of sightseers left the island at 3:10 for the Key Route pier and the entire number will be off the island by 6 o'clock.

Oakland's Hotels Full to Overflowing

All the hotels of this city are filled with strangers who have come to see the fleet celebrated. Ever since yesterday morning has been pouring in and the hotel men say that it is a great demonstration of Oaklands popularity.

Provision has been made for the accommodation of all. The stranger may be assured that he will be treated with the greatest courtesy at the hands of the hotel employees. The visitors will receive special attention and all the comforts of home will be extended to them.

CORPSES CUT TO BITS AND BURIED

Unearth Horrible Evidence of Wholesale Slaughter Woman Suspected of Many Crimes

A PORTE Ind May 6—A Porte to Lucy Sorenson, 9 years old, and their half brother Philip Guinness, 5 years old, were found in the throes of a murder mystery that takes rank with the notorious crimes perpetrated by Dr. Holmes of Chicago and the Bender family of Kansas.

Explanation for fourteen deaths is being sought. The bodies included the bodies found this morning, two husbands of Mrs. Guinness, four bodies previously found, five bodies some of whom disappeared and the parts seven in gunny sacks were unearthed yesterday in the barn yard of the burned Guinness house one mile out of town. The three bodies found out of the cellar of the Guinness home.

Bodies Found in Ruins

With the four imperfectly identified bodies recovered from the ruins of the house since the fire of April 23, which took the life of the woman, the collected insurance from the fire underwriter.

Police have estimated that the woman herself may not be dead, but that she procured a female corpse set fire to her own house and then fled leaving the world to believe she had perished in the flames.

This then is strengthened by the fact that the body of the woman found in the ruins of the Guinness home after the fire is still missing, although every effort has been made to locate it. Unless the dead is found officers will make a post mortem examination of the remains and subject the body to a careful analysis to learn whether Mrs. Guinness was herself killed in the fire or had substituted the remains of one of her female victims for herself and then set fire to the house in order to cover up the crime.

The first body dug up was that of Andrew Helgen, a wealthy bachelor of 40, who came to San Francisco in January and disappeared without a trace. The limbs and head had been sawed off and placed in gunny sacks which had been sewn up.

Find Body of Girl

In a recent examination a skeleton believed to be that of Jennie Olsen, an adopted daughter of Mrs. Guinness, who disappeared in September 1906 was discovered at the time, was nearly 17 years of age at the time, it was reported by Mrs. Guinness to have gone to Los Angeles to attend college.

Digging brought the searhers to more remains which contained the dismembered body, which contained the remains recognizable as such as a dark mustache and dark hair.

Two Children Unearthed Between this body was another layer of earth and which were found the bodies of two children apparently about 17 years of age.

There are several more suspected places in the grounds about the ruins and the authorities have resumed the search.

Steffi Smutzy has advanced the theory that some of the bodies may have been sent from Chicago in an effort to cover a crime in that city, that the dismembered remains of the third child, and their mother was of the thirteenth child, is the firm belief of the local authorities. Also they have the suspicion that Ray Lumphere is the man who started the fatal火灾.

The gruesome developments on the pretty farm have set the entire country agog. Before Mrs. Guinness acquired the farm, it belonged to Eddie Alte, well known to the reporter, and it bears an eye sore to the citizens of La Porte.

Dropped Dead in Door But that is not all. What about the door? The door was blown open by the explosion.

After Mrs. Guinness bought the farm it was painted considerably. A fine division standing from the road to the house which sits on a hill surrounded by trees, well kept lawns dotted with shrubbery and flower plots sloped away from the house on three sides and in the rear. In the great hall within which were stabled four horses, a piano for the children and several highly bred dogs. Nothing about the place suggested that it was in abode of mystery in its death.

DYNAMITE FAMILY HOME; BLOW OUT FRONT OF HOUSE

Think Deed Result of Labor Troubles

CHICAGO May 6—Charles W. Kirchner and the members of his family narrowly escaped death last night when a mysterious bomb explosion tore out the front of their residence and broke windows in all the adjacent houses. Kirchner is a lumber foreman.

The explosion aroused much excitement. Hurried calls were sent for the police but the perpetrators escaped.

William Kirchner, 24 years old, an invalid was assisted to the street with difficulty. Other members of the family are Joseph, 21 years old; Louis, 16; Francis, 15; Walter, 13, and Marie, 10, years of age.

Cures Eczema Quickly.

New Drug, Poslan, Now Obtainable in Small Quantities.

Since its discovery one year ago, the new drug, Poslan, has successfully cured thousands of chronic cases of eczema and other distressing skin afflictions. Heretofore Poslan has been dispensed solely in large quantities at a nominal cost. This change was found to be an inconvenience to many thousands who use it for minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, etc., etc. It is now, however, easily procurable to cure. To overcome this, and in response to urgent appeals, the dispensers of Poslan have been obliged to adopt, in addition to the regular two-dollar package, a special fifty-cent package which will fit in the coat pocket, in which it can be carried about. The new drug, Poslan, can be had at the Owl Drug Company and other leading drug stores in Oakland, or may be ordered direct from the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West 25th Street, New York City. All chronic cases of Poslan should be fitted with this application and proceeds to heat immediately; chronic cases being cured in two weeks. In less serious skin troubles, results are seen after an overnight application.

Send your experimental purposes may still be had free of charge, by writing to the laboratories for them.

BOARD DECIDES TO WIDEN CLAREMONT

In Spite of Opposition, Measure Finally Carries by Vote of 4 to 3.

BERKELEY, May 6.—The Board of Trustees decided last night, after some lively wrangling, that Claremont Avenue should be widened from 60 to 80 feet. Trustee Gompertz made the motion for the change, while Trustee Connor opposed on the ground that the Oakland Council had indicated nothing that would promise that the section within Oakland would be made uniform with the new Berkeley thoroughfare. Trustee Olsen wanted all action delayed and drew the fire of the Mayor accordingly.

"Tell me, Mr. Olsen, what you know anything about widening streets?" asked Mayor Ferrier.

"I think I know as much as you do," retorted Olsen.

"It looks to me as if the Mayor were acting as an attorney of interests wanting this street widened," said George W. Cox, who is bitterly opposed to widening the avenue.

Leo D. Smith spoke against the motion of Gompertz. Mrs. Ross M. Torrey, one of the protestants, asked that her name be removed from the list: "It will damage one of my lots, but I think the public good will be served if this avenue is widened," said Mrs. Torrey.

O. R. Stone also changed sides. B. F. Brooks, for the Chamber of Commerce, spoke in favor of a broader street, and the Gompertz motion was carried by a vote of 4 to 3.

ARBITRATION TREATY REMOVES SUSPICION

TOKIO, May 6.—The news of the conclusion of the arbitrated treaty between the United States and Japan has been well received, and it is believed it will remove whatever suspicion exists regarding the mutual relations of the two countries.

NOW TO ACQUIRE A GOOD COMPLEXION

The following formula for a toilet preparation that is probably the most effective known to the profession for producing the rose tinted complexion now so desirable and enabling the discontinuance of all cosmetics and powders:

Two ounces Rose Water, one ounce Spirits of Cologne, four ounces Saffron.

Put the Saffron into a pint of hot water (not boiling) and when dissolved, add the Rose Water and Cologne Spirits; then strain through a fine cloth. Any large bottle will serve as a receptacle. These ingredients can be gotten from any well stocked druggist and easily mixed. Apply immediately after washing and to only a portion of the skin at a time, using the bare hands. Never use a cloth. After one part is thus treated, proceed to another. This should be done twice a day or often, and no other lotion, powder or cream need be used.

AUTO JUMPS 75 FEET TO WATER

Two Seriously and Two Fatally Hurt When Car Strikes Log Raft.

SEATTLE, May 6.—An automobile running fifty miles an hour dashed through railings at Fourth and Andover streets last night and alighted seventy-five feet out on a raft of logs in Elliott bay, with two girls and two young men, injuring the men seriously and the girls fatally.

The visitors were in the water an hour and a half before they were rescued. The girls are Hazel Ross, 17 years old, and Alice Teator, 20 years old. The men are Edward C. Bennett, 22, and Henry C. Hubbard, 23 years old.

Not all the people went to Goat Island or San Francisco, but all did who could get seats in cars. Those that remained behind with the exception of a few policemen, a solitary railwayman or a lone-sea flagman, scattered to the hills. Charter Hill was fringed with a few thousand people. Some of the more impatience climaxed in two miles and 2,000 feet up to the top of Grizzly Peak. Others made up excursion parties with refreshments of all kinds and eat on various elevated spots with eyes trained seaward.

Still others sought the waterfront.

Hundreds more went up Strawberry canyon and found a resting place with a perspective for the marine spectacle that was being staged somewhere out in the Golden Gate. None of these could say that they had a clear view of the arrival of the big armada.

When the big ships rounded into the channel between Alcatraz Island and North Beach it was worth sitting on the hills all morning and eating cold lunch to see them.

Railways Were Busy.

Each railway was busy carrying people to the ferries from 6 o'clock until 11:30 at the rate of 8,000 an hour.

In the five hours of the rush the officials estimated the nearly 30,000 people had been taken out of town. Both roads were runnied on their schedule time, but as they put into service extra trailers the train service was practically doubled. Trains of ten cars each left Center street practically every ten minutes from 6 o'clock.

Getting Aboard Trains.

The struggle for seats was greatest about 9 o'clock. At that hour the heavy travel over the Key Route to Goat Island set in with tremendous rush and it was impossible to maneuver the crowds.

They clung to the rails and the guards of the cars at times and there was many a real danger of accident to many of the reckless boys and young men who rather than be left behind were willing to perch anywhere to get to the ferry.

It was a flight of families. Houses were deserted. The big fashionable homes along the foothills had been forsaken alike by mistress and maid.

It was a grand scramble to get a peep of the big ships open to all comers and there were few that did not enter.

TOUCHED THIRD RAIL AND DIED INSTANTLY

STOCKTON, May 6.—James Welsh, a laborer, about 40 years of age and unmarried, was almost instantly killed this morning on the Central California Traction Company's line, half-way between Stockton and Lodi, through contact with the third rail and a cut by means of a crowbar in his hands.

A White Elephant and Her Husband

The Happiness of the Family is Often Dispeled by Fat Disease.

To have a waddling, whoppling big wife is of course a misfortune for any ordinary man, but it is more of a misfortune to the waddling wife. Though she may be a good wife in most respects of the time, ashamed to go out due to the ridicule she suffers on the street, is nothing compared to the suffocating whoppy agony she undergoes when she has to do her housework, unless she is fortunate enough of course, to have a servant.

Such a woman is simply insufferable.

Couple with it all the loss of beauty and a lovely form, which is dear to every woman, the dangling flesh from cheek and chin that makes the very air seem heavy.

The fat-squeaks at the lungs that smother the heart, and the fat-clutch at the heart, it certainly does seem as though there were no more severe affliction to bear in life.

The home seems lop-sided, with a heavy ponderous wife, or an elephant husband, who is too fat to walk and make the happy lightweights believe that they are not at all in the way.

It is misery trying to make other people believe you are happy and well. It is often the foolish wife who burns the heart attacks. No one likes her and even members of your own family must naturally feel a repugnance to you.

Can all end by using Rengo for a little while. Pound by pound will begin to drop away, muscle will vanish, safely and surely, without any harm to doing something, and not able to do it and draw an easy breath, and then when night comes to have to short step around in a hurry and wind up the duties of the day, is a terrible curse upon any one, more so for a woman.

Such a woman is simply insufferable.

Such a woman is simply insufferable.

Couple with it all the loss of beauty and a lovely form, which is dear to every woman, the dangling flesh from cheek and chin that makes the very air seem heavy.

The fat-squeaks at the lungs that smother the heart, and the fat-clutch at the heart, it certainly does seem as though there were no more severe affliction to bear in life.

The home seems lop-sided, with a heavy ponderous wife, or an elephant husband, who is too fat to walk and make the happy lightweights believe that they are not at all in the way.

It is misery trying to make other people believe you are happy and well. It is often the foolish wife who burns the heart attacks. No one likes her and even members of your own family must naturally feel a repugnance to you.

Can all end by using Rengo for a little while. Pound by pound will begin to drop away, muscle will vanish, safely and surely, without any harm to doing something, and not able to do it and draw an easy breath, and then when night comes to have to short step around in a hurry and wind up the duties of the day, is a terrible curse upon any one, more so for a woman.

KETCHEL AND SULLIVAN ARE IN GRAND CONDITION || LOCAL FANS SEE OAKLAND AND LOS ANGELES PLAY

JACK THE TWIN IS READY FOR FRAY WITH KETCHEL

His Admirers Think That His Skill Will More Than Offset Montanan's Punching Power.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

The men who control the money market of the prize ring have installed Stanley Ketchel a slight favorite over Jack (Twin) Sullivan for their thirty-five-round contest to be decided Saturday afternoon at the Mission-street Arena. The thing that has caused this bunting among the so-called wise ones is the showings that Jack made with Squires and Kaufman, and the fact that the boxing exhibitions between Jack and Brother Mike would lead one to believe that they were about on an equal scale, and as Ketchel won from Mike so easily, this is taken as an indication pointing to a victory for the Montanan.

The showings that Jack, the twin, put up with Kaufman and Squires are, of course, somewhat excusable, when it is taken into consideration that Kaufman weighed that day close to 200 pounds, and Squires weighed about 165, while Sullivan, for this contest, is making 165 pounds at 10 o'clock on the morning of the fight, which would mean that he surely did not weigh much over 165 pounds with either of the above men. In this contest it will be the first time that Jack has been pitted against a man of his own weight for a very long time.

Jack Can Fight.

As to the boxing with his Brother Mike, there is every reason to believe that Jack is far and away the best fighter, and that it is continual association in the training quarters that has made the two box a good deal alike when sparring with each other.

The admirers of Ketchel do not go back and figure what he has done and what he may do in the future, for while they well remember the clever style in which he has won the three contests that he has had here the memory of that dash and speed, coupled with the hitting powers, are the things that are uppermost in their minds, and if he should get beaten there will be more who heads go wrong on predicting what a great fighter Ketchel is than on any fighter the writer has ever known. It seems that the universal opinion of all the sporting men that the youngster is the greatest find of a dozen years, and those who are playing Sullivan even admit that he is a great prospect, but it is their opinion that Sullivan is too smart for him in the tricks of the game.

Iron Man Grim.

Friday afternoon will be the first opportunity that the fight fans will have to witness Iron Man Joe Grim. The Philadelphian has been a great freak ever since entering the ring, owing to the fact that the harder the heavyweights hit the better Grim likes to meet them.

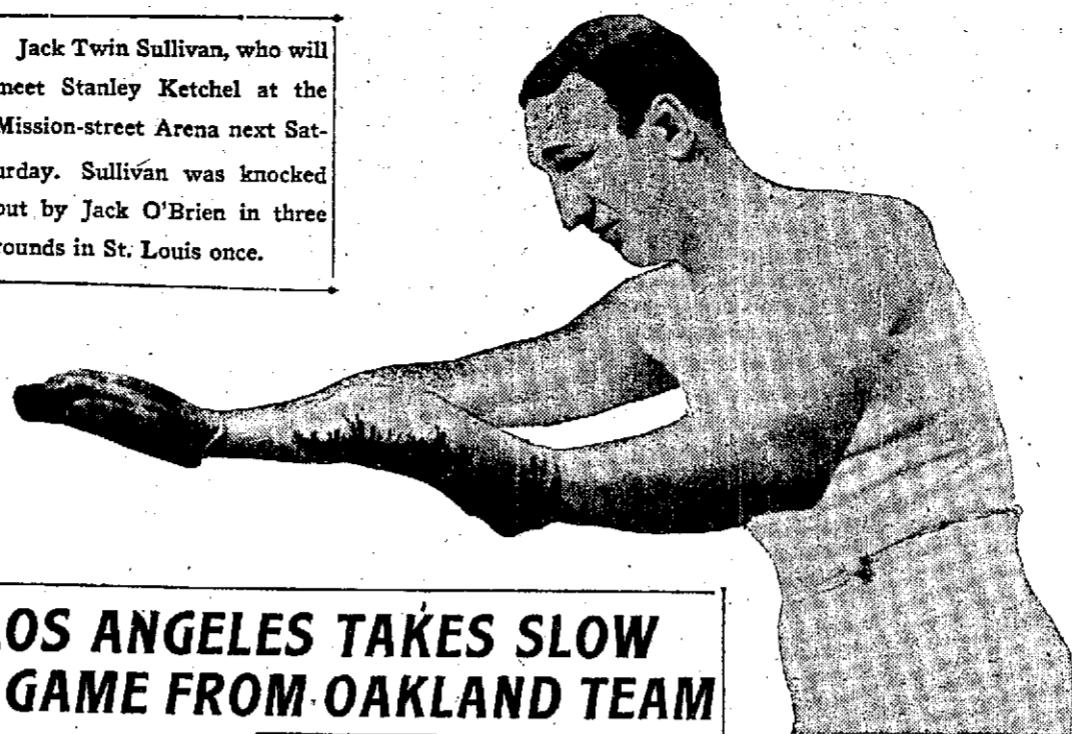

Bob Fitzsimmons in his fight here with Jeffries gave the big fellow a beating in the first five rounds of that contest that he well remembers, and those who held tickets on the big fellow were anything but confident of victory during this time. Jeffries left the ring that night after several rounds having been fought bleeding and maimed, and the audience expected that it would take weeks to recover from it, while with Grim, in the six-round bout, he had with Fitzsimmons at Philadelphia, he was smiling and inviting the frocked one to come on when the contest was over.

In his coming contest with Al Kaufman the Italian is of the opinion that he will surely win, and although he has had the reputation of being a fighter who devoted his time to taking punishment and staying the limit, he is willing to make a good-sized bet that in this contest he will be returned the winner. Kaufman is in training at Alameda and is reported in good condition. He has high hopes of accomplishing the trick that the others have failed at, and is devoting all his time to strengthening his punches and battering his wind.

FIGHTING DICK HYLAND SHOWS CLASS WITH KEYES

NEW YORK, May 6.—Fighting Dick Hyland of San Francisco had the better of a six-round go with Bert Keyes here last night. Hyland was the steadier fighter of the two and he worked well and steadily throughout the go. Keyes was willing to mix it up, but Hyland kept him off with a series of left jabs. Keyes cut loose in the opener and put some hard swings to the head of Hyland which made him fight on the defensive. In the second round Hyland shook Keyes up with solid swings on the neck fully.

Jack Twin Sullivan, who will meet Stanley Ketchel at the Mission-street Arena next Saturday. Sullivan was knocked out by Jack O'Brien in three rounds in St. Louis once.

LOS ANGELES TAKES SLOW GAME FROM OAKLAND TEAM

Teams Consume More Than Two Hours To Play Nine Innings—Hardy Is Batted Freely.

By T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

One of the largest Tuesday afternoon crowds that ever turned out to a sporting event in Oakland was on hand to greet the Oakland baseball club at Freeman's Park yesterday afternoon.

The patrons of the great national sport were in a somnambulistic state. The sport on the tables was allotted to a baseball game, but as it turned out most of those who saw the contest imagined that they were witnessing a cricket contest.

Dear reader, you may not know what a cricket game is, but to enlighten you we will say that it is England's favorite pastime.

First, they start the game with a bowler and batter and after they have played eleven hours and fourteen minutes they adjourn for tea. We will say that this is Tuesday. Then they resume play Wednesday of the following week.

Mr. So and So The Jibs of Kohinoor will be introduced and they will hold a reception, and what Lords and Dukes boast coronetries will be on hand and talking over the latest reports of Bradstreet and R. G. Dun on the American heresies. When these trivialities are finished they resume the great game of cricket.

This matter has little to do with and about baseball, but the nearest we can say to playing baseball at Freeman's Park is that the game was a game that resembled baseball, and as cricket has the Saxon sanction of being their national game we will say that they played cricket.

Something like two hours and ten minutes were consumed in the playing of that game. We learned for that English pine tea ourselves, but it did not come off.

We have watched baseball on many fields, but we have yet to hear of any fan who wishes to sit two hours and ten minutes to watch the sport for the sake of the game.

Hardy of Oakland, and Thorsen of Los Angeles began to oppose each other on the mound. From way they pitched it appeared to the casual spectator as though they were burned with a desire to greet the fleet. Neither man was in a hurry. They would themselves and down like that almanac check that you set for bells in the morning. You never get up, and it looked as though they would never finish that game at Freeman's Park.

Last year's champs began to score early. Three runs was their appointment in the fourth inning. Brasher started off that inning with a single. He committed larceny. Smith tapped to Altman and that gentleman, moved of a brotherly feeling for third baseman, foozled.

Then Elkins singled. With the field Delmas pulled off a squeeze play and Brasher was safe at home. Banker Nagle lifted one to Van Halteren. Hogan singled to left, scoring Ellis and Ellis. Then Thorsen wound up the inning by fanning.

Jud Smith continues to caper around third base with the alertness of a youngster, and there is a lingering suspicion that he is the man who first shouted "Land" when Christopher Columbus discovered America.

Nagle, at second base, still continues to be the fresh kid. The Santa Rosa banker is always there with the resort cordial.

Tonington Bill Wright says that the world is an ashtray for him. Some one swiped his latest copy of the Tonington Times, and Bill is out in the dark as to what is coming off at the home metropolis.
